

MISSION STATEMENT

My mission is to be a part of what changes the industry from the greedy world it is becoming into the classic formula of releasing a full, complete, polished game with true core playability and entertainment. I will achieve this by pushing myself to the farthest of my abilities to learn new things, networking with others to create a community of gamers who care like me and can share their wealth of knowledge in exchange for mine, and by making sure that I do my best at pushing out quality IPs during my work at Full Sail and in my future career and motivate others to do the same. I will use my bravery to maintain change in the industry where sharks chase the Minos, I will display charity so others can see that you can care about a whole project and not just a part, I will use bliss to encapsulate audiences in our work, but most of all I will muster immense conviction to ensure that I do not slump while making gaming a more friendly and fun place. Through my education, experience, and passion, I will change the industry alongside my peers and show everyone that gaming is for them, not just the gamers and the rich.

I will change gaming forever.
